The International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life
...and YOU!
Why? Because you care about the world and your place in it.

Graduate Students:
The International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life at Brandeis University is committed to supporting graduate students as they contribute to meaningful changes in the world. Opportunities include:

- Apply for Event Cosponsorship. Typical grant amounts are up to $250 and include publicity. Monthly deadlines. brandeis.edu/ethics/events/cosponsorship

- Nominate a world-class individual that you would like to bring to Brandeis for a 2-3 day residency. Awards of $25,000 are given annually for the Richman Fellowship (for improving American society and advancing social justice, due March 1st) and for the Gittler Prize (for scholarly contributions to racial, ethnic and/or religious relations, due April 1st). - Enroll in CAST 150b: "Intro to Creativity, the Arts, & Social Transformation." How can music, theater, poetry, literature, and visual arts contribute to community development, coexistence, reconciliation and nonviolent social change? Class meets Tuesday 2:00-4:50 p.m. (fall only). go.brandeis.edu/CAST

- Represent! Graduate student representatives needed for:
  - Ethics Center Campus Advisory Committee (ECCAC) (Advises the Ethics Center on our on-campus presence and makes event cosponsorship decisions, including funding decisions. ECCAC meets monthly from January 2018 to December 2018, excluding summer)
  - 'DEIS Impact Steering Committee (Makes strategic decisions around 'DEIS Impact. Occasional meetings plus a marathon meeting in late October to make event funding decisions)
  - Richman Fellow Selection Committee (Holds three meetings in the spring after the March 1 deadline but before May. Committee members read all nominations and may be asked to do some research on some of the candidates. Members are also encouraged to personally nominate suitable candidates.)
