Master of Arts in International Economics and Finance (MA)

ABOUT BRANDEIS INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL

By teaching rigorous business, finance and economics with a global perspective, Brandeis International Business School prepares students to succeed in companies and organizations worldwide. The school is part of Brandeis University, a medium-sized private research university ranked among the most selective by U.S. News and World Report. Students have unsurpassed access to renowned faculty and a global network of more than 60,000 alumni in 160 countries.

Master of Arts in International Economics and Finance (MA)

The MA program enables students to delve into economic theory and finance, while mastering data analysis skills that are critical in today's global economy. From careers in data analytics, economic analysis, finance, marketing and real estate, students move beyond models to engage in hands-on learning and prepare to tackle economic, business and financial challenges with international perspective.

PROGRAM OPTIONS

MA

Students complete the MA program in two years, including a required practicum. Fall start.

ACCELERATED MA

Students who have studied business or economics at a U.S. college or university may complete the MA degree in just one year. Spring or fall start.

DUAL DEGREES

The MA/MBA and MSBA/MA dual degrees can be completed over four to five semesters. Complete the MA/MBA degree with a combined 96 credits and the MSBA/MA with a combined 77 credits, instead of the 128 and 105 respective credits required to earn each degree independently. Fall start.

PART-TIME MA

Students can finish the part-time MA program (fall start) in three to four years and the part-time Accelerated MA program (spring or fall start) in two to three years, taking four to five classes a year. Optimal for students with flexible schedules, as courses are held throughout the day.
